

Be a Part of Your Coastal Carolinas Association of REALTORS®

Committee Volunteer Form

Committees are where the progress of the Association begins! Committee service offers members an opportunity to advance their own knowledge and skills while adding significantly to the efficiency of the Association. Volunteering does entail responsibility, attendance at called meetings, and sharing of the work for a better Association of REALTORS®! Every effort will be made to place you on the committee(s) of your choice.

Awards and Membership – Select candidates for State REALTOR® of the year, Distinguished Service Award, and Image Award. Develop ways to increase membership participation. Review applications to ensure compliance with Bylaws, present new member applicants to the Board of Directors and Membership.

Bylaws – Maintain Board Bylaws in compliance with the Nation Association of REALTORS® policy consider amendments and make recommendations regarding the Board of Directors and Membership.

Professional Education Committee – Arrange and promote educational programs to be presented to membership. Select persons to utilize any funds budgeted or raised for educational purposes – primarily real estate education.

Hospitality/Community Service – Design, plan, and conduct social functions for the Association and projects to benefit the Community, including – Mark Sloan Memorial Golf Tournament. Host monthly REALTORS® Affiliate Nite Out and promote weekly REALTOR® golf.

Legislative Committee - Establish programs to keep members informed of political activities at local, state, and national government, which affect the real estate industry. Study State and National legislative programs, recommend policy and action to our Board of Directors. Respond to NAR's "Call to Action" request. Sponsor the "Legislative Day Pig Pickin"

Realtors Political Action Committee – To promote awareness and collect funds for the REALTOR® Political Action Committee to be used in the support of candidates who, by their voting record or philosophy display a positive attitude toward the real estate industry.

Coastal Real Estate Magazine - Help set the standards and rates of the real estate magazine published by the Association. Enlist other REALTORS® to support and advertise in the magazine.
